Connie Gee Selected to Join Florida Chamber Foundation's Six Pillars Caucus System
*Med-Vision's vice president helping to shape Florida's next economy for prosperity.

March 22, 2011 (Tampa, Fla.) - The Florida Chamber Foundation announced that Connie Gee has been selected to serve on their Six Pillars Caucus System. Gee, who serves as the vice president, health data analyst and wellness strategic planner for Med-Vision, LLC (www.med-vision.com), will join other-leaders from across the state on the Quality of Life & Quality of Places Caucus to help craft the first-ever, state-wide strategic plan.

The Six Pillars Caucus System is a qualitative research program aimed to engage the best and brightest minds in the state to develop a plan for Florida's future economy that includes high-wage jobs, global competitiveness, and vibrant communities by the year 2030. The program launched last year and current members have already begun to construct the foundation for the plan. In this second year, Caucus members' deliberations will become more focused in order to finalize the first draft.

The Six Pillars is a product of years of collaboration and more than a million dollars in research by the Foundation that identifies the critical factor's determining Florida's future: 1) Talent Supply and Education, 2) Innovation and Economic Development, 3) Infrastructure and Growth Leadership, 4) Business Climate and Competitiveness, 5) Civic and Governance Systems, and 6) Quality of Life and Quality Places.

Gee holds an MBA from the University of Tampa as well as a certificate in Human Resource Management and various accreditations from health organizations. Her experience includes 20 years in the development of health promotion programs for major hospitals and corporations. Her primary functions at Med-Vision include analyzing health plan data, identifying cost drivers, and determining actionable solutions for improving employee wellness while simultaneously reducing healthcare costs.

New Caucus members were selected through a very competitive process. With the development of the strategic plan becoming more focused in 2011, Gee and other volunteers were selected with specific proficiencies that complement the collective expertise of the current members. To view a complete list of Six Pillars Caucus members, visit www.FLFoundation.org/Caucus.

"The Foundation looks forward to working along-side these thought leaders to refine goals, strategies and tactics that will lead to the state's first-ever strategic plan for prosperity," said Dr. Dale A. Brill, president of the Florida Chamber Foundation.

Others interested in getting involved in the discussion are encouraged to join the Six Pillars Collaborative Website. This site is designed to foster discussions surrounding the Six Pillars and will help formulate the recommendations for the strategic plan.

The online community is a way to engage in discussions through sharing, evaluating and critiquing of ideas and issues. Those interested should email FloridaSixPillars@FLFoundation.org for an invitation to the site.
